

PASSPORT

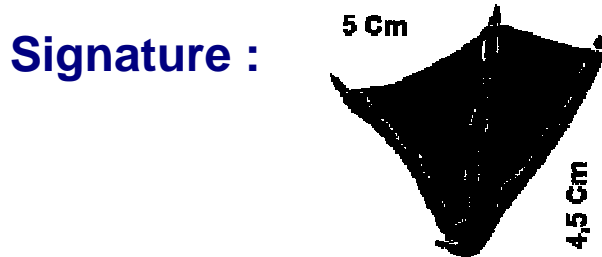

Name : The black-headed gull

Food : It feeds essentially on aquatic and earthbound insects, fishes and wastes.

Sound : It cries. It is noisy.

Gender : It is omnivore

Habitat : This bird is aquatic. It lives at the sea and near the littoral.

Bird fact file

Eggs	There is between 2 and 3 eggs in the nest in april or may. They are olive-brown and speckled of brown.
How to recognise this bird	It is around 37 and 43 cm. It has white below, pale grey plumage on the back and black wing tip. Its beak, fingers and legs are red and beak's extremity is black. The adults have a dark hood which disappears after the bridal season.

My journey

How I got there	Certain are sedentary the others are migratory.
Picture

PASSPORT

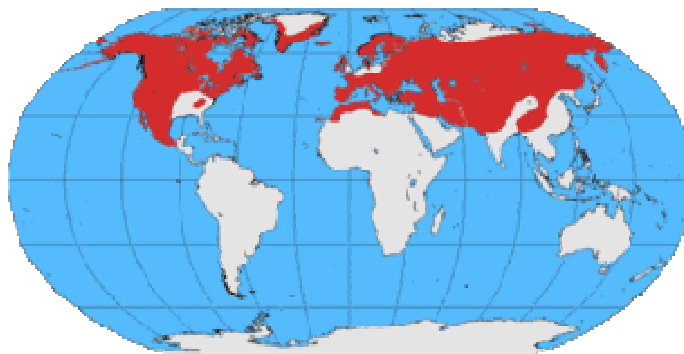

Name : The raven

Food : It feeds essentially on insects' carrion, wastes, cereals, berries and fruits.

Sound : It caws.

Gender : It is omnivore.

Habitat :

Signature :

Bird fact file

Eggs	There is between 3 and 6 eggs in the nest. They are blue-green and speckled of brown. The couple build a big nest.
How to recognise this bird	It is around 52 and 69 cm. Black below. Beak, legs and eyes are black too.

My journey

How I got there	It is sedentary.
Picture

PASSPORT

Name : The owl

Food : It feeds essentially on birds, voles.

Sound : It hoots.

Gender : It is omnivore

Habitat : In the holes of trees. It prefers sparse forests, especially conifers.

Signature :

Bird fact file

Eggs	There is between 4 and 5 eggs in the nest. They are white. It uses nests of Corvids, hawks, pigeons or herons abandoned.
How to recognise this bird	It is around 37 and 43 cm. It has egrets. Its below is speckled and it has orange eyes.

My journey

How I got there	Partial migrant.
Picture

Other information :

It is nocturnal.

PASSPORT

Name : The tawny owl

Food : It feeds essentially on birds and rodents.

Sound : It hoots.

Gender : It is omnivore

Habitat : Ferested areas, cultivated areas, parks and treed gardens.

Bird fact file

Eggs	There is between 2 and 4 eggs in the nest. They are white. It nests in trees' holes or buildings. It can also nests in raven's nests, ...
How to recognise this bird	It is around 38 cm. It doesn't have egrets.

My journey

How I got there	It is sedentary.
Picture

Other information :

It is nocturnal.