

Passport

Name: The duck

Food: It eats seeds, grass and fishes. He drinks some water. Sometimes, people give to it some salad and dry bread.

Sound: It « cancanne ».

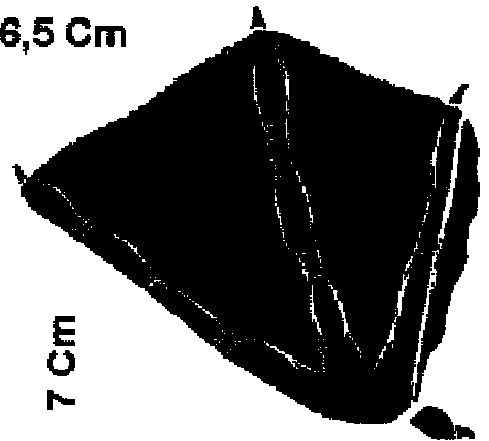

Gender: It is omnivore.

Habitat: It lives in the farm or in the wet zones of fresh water (puddle, river), sometimes on the water and returns on dry land only to settle or for the nesting (to make its nest).

Signature:

6,5 Cm

7 Cm

Bird Fact File:

Eggs	The female duck lays approximately from 5 to 15 eggs. They can be of different colour: blue-green, blue very pale, grey.
How to recognise this bird	It has grey and black stripes. Its legs are orange and webbed. The stomach is white and there are green feathers on the tail. Its beak is wide and flat.

My Journey

How I got there

It does not migrate.

Picture

